

POINTS OF INTEREST

Georgia Mustain 15
A memorial to a five year old child, this monument , with its child asleep, dove and arch of rose blossoms, is one of the more elaborate tombstones in the cemetery.

Historic
LINWOOD CEMETERY
City of Columbus
Georgia

Fishburne Lot 6
Provides an excellent example of the elaborate cast-iron fences used to mark the family plots.

Garrard Lot 12
Contains perhaps the tallest obelisk in the cemetery; L.F. Garrard served as Speaker of Georgia House of Representatives and developed the Weracoba neighborhood to the east of the cemetery.

W.C. Bradley 13
Cotton farmer, wholesale merchant, steam-boat owner, industrialist, and investor who served as Chairman of the Board of Coca-Cola for over two decades.

Noble Leslie DeVotie 14
A Baptist minister and newspaper editor who was one of the founders of the Sigma Alpha Epsilon fraternity.

Frances Joseph Springer 16
A grocer who was the primary investor in the Springer Opera House (1872).

POINTS OF INTEREST

Tabitha Lamar 4
The wife of Mirabeau Lamar, who founded the Columbus Enquirer, and served as the second President of the Texas Republic.

Louis Haiman 3

A Jewish tin smith from Posen who produced excellent swords for the Confederacy and excellent agricultural implements after the Civil War.

J.W. Davis Woodman of the World Marker 1
Such stylized tree trunks indicate that the deceased was a member of the Woodman of the World fraternal insurance organization, which erected this marker. Such memorials were a common feature of southern cemeteries.

Confederate Soldiers 2

Men who died in the Columbus hospitals during the war. (On both the southwest & southeast corners of the cemetery).

Chappell Family Lot 8
A.H. Chappell served as Congressman in the 1840's; L.H. Chappell was elected mayor for 6 terms; and Miss Loretto was the city's most beloved librarian.

Dr. Francis Orray Ticknor 5

A local physician who wrote the Civil War poem "The Little Giffen of Tennessee."

John S. Pemberton 7
A wholesale druggist who developed the formula for Coca-Cola.

H. Augusta Howard 9

Founder of Georgia's Woman Suffrage Association; her tombstone reads "Martyred".

Jones-Benning Lot 11
Seaborn Jones, an early Columbus lawyer, built the mansion known as St. Elmo. His son-in-law, Henry L. Benning, was a lawyer and Confederate General for whom Fort Benning is named.

Margaret Traylor 10

Her grave stone shows a willow tree next to an obelisk as a single image. This icon came from Germany and was first used in Charleston, S.C. By 1849, it had traveled across the South to Columbus.

